

FORMAL COMMUNICATION

TO: Indiana's Workforce Investment System

FROM: Dennis Wimer DW
Deputy Commissioner, Field Operations

DATE: July 18, 2012

Technical Assistance Bulletin TAB 2012-01 Voter Registration

Purpose

To provide guidance to WorkOne personnel on voter registration in WorkOne Centers.

Content

The National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (NVRA) is a federal law designed to increase citizen's access to voter registration opportunities. In accordance with the NVRA, the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (DWD) is designated as a voter registration agency. As a voter registration agency, DWD will offer voter registration services to persons applying for DWD program services.

DWD will offer voter registration at all WorkOne offices via Internet, through the use of the Uplink system, and through the desk-top link to the online voter registration application through WorkOne public access computers.

Implementation

All customers using the Uplink system have an automatic link to take them to the voter registration electronic site. This link <https://indianavoters.in.gov/PublicSite/PublicMain.aspx> is Indiana's official voter registration site and customers may register to vote, check their voter registration, update their voter registration and view other services.

WorkOne office staff will assist customers with voter registration in the following manner:

- Create a link on each public access computer to the official State of Indiana voter registration site (see above for link).

- Unemployment Insurance customers who desire to vote will be instructed to sign-in to their Uplink home page and click on the link for voter registration, complete the voter registration form and submit the form electronically.
- Escort all other customers (not receiving or filing for unemployment benefits) who desire to register to vote, to one of the public-use computers. Staff will instruct the customer to click on the desktop link "Voter Registration," register to vote using the electronic application on the website and submit the voter registration form electronically.
- Assist customers, if requested, to complete the voter registration application. It is suggested that WorkOne personnel pre-print the VR-6 Indiana Agency Voter Registration paper application (see Attachments A to this TAB) in order to better assist the customer with the process for completion of the voter registration form in case the customer does not wish to complete and submit the electronic voter registration form.
- Please note that all efforts made by WorkOne personnel are to be in a cooperative manner to help the customer register to vote via electronic registration through linkage to the official Indiana voter registration site.

Paper application alternatives

- In the instance a customer wants to register to vote but prefers the paper-based application, the WorkOne staff will provide a pre-printed voter application to the customer. It is suggested that WorkOne personnel pre-print a few paper voter registrations and to keep them handy (in a place known to all staff) in order to provide quick assistance to the customer.
- Once the customer completes the paper application, staff will cut/tear neatly at the perforation line located in the center of the voter registration application. Staff will hand the customer the top portion of the VR-6 voter registration application. This portion of the VR-6 serves as a receipt for the customer.
- The bottom portion of the VR-6 is the official voter registration application. Staff will keep the voter registration in a secure location (the customer's driver's license number and/ or the last four digits of the customer's social security number, as well as other confidential information, are present on the voter registration form).
- At a minimum, each Friday, WorkOne staff will take all voter registration forms from the secure storage location, sort the voter registration applications by county of residence on the voter registration application. Once the sorting is complete, WorkOne staff will place the voter registration forms in the appropriate envelope(s) and mail (via certified mail) them to the appropriate county voter registration office(s). (See Attachment B to this TAB for a list of the county locations).
- All voter registration applications must be mailed within five days of completion by the customer.
